

Sponsorship & Visibility Benefits

You are 1 step away from San Francisco. Selections to host you are done only from approved profiles on Galiara. While you await the opportunity, you are visible to our Ecosystem of patrons, right here, through your own gallery. The selection team, is unable to visit personal websites independently. See you soon in San Francisco!

We show only select individuals at a time. Today, The internet is a "free for all", "sign up with your email", soiree, with a billions of images. Artists are lost and anyone with Internet access can sign, up. You may have a website of your own but amongst Billions of images, getting noticed AND promoting yourself is an expensive science by itself.

That problem now stands solved.

Right here, Each member gets the convenience of their own "business" - A Personalized Gallery.

They can Log In - Upload - Add - Delete - Promote on Social Media. Every aspect of your creative life is showcased in one room and you can promote and sell independently on your network.

Once you set up your profile, you don't need us. You create while we get you visibility. You can be your own ambassadors too by promoting your profile & selling in your community.

In addition, we drive overall traffic to the Portal, Involve celebrities, Patrons, Foundations, Philanthropists, Private Donors, Corporates, Institutions etc. Members get instant access to this ecosystem.

We also have tailor made programs for members seeking individual promotion. They can take advantage of our marketing and social media expertise by speaking one-on-one with a counselor curator.

Members are also regularly selected for fully sponsored shows by us.

San Francisco being a major art center, submissions year round are overwhelming. We find it difficult to sift through attachments, web links & websites. Most artists' personal websites do not do full justice to their work. Based on our own requirements, our curatorial board has created a technically systematized and convenient submission process, online, thereby freeing up staff to focus on outreach program for an artist.

12. Social media outreach

Over 10 years, we have sponsored artists and shows in San Francisco (in addition to our online infrastructure) and have a dedicated team to engage with the artists for promotion of artwork through different mediums. The online and involvement in physical shows experience helped us to further empower artists in today's social media challenges. Exposure through the physical art shows is limited and therefore our main focus area is empowerment of artists who cannot be with us in San Francisco.
